

E-Commerce Product Return, Refund & Replacement Policy

1. Return & Refund Policy

Customers may request a return for eligible products according to the following timelines:

Return Request	Refund Amount
Within 5 days from delivery date	100% of product amount
More than 5 days and up to 10 days from delivery date	50% of product amount
More than 10 days from delivery date	No return or refund

The return period starts from the date the product is marked as delivered.

Return Conditions

A product must generally meet the following conditions to be eligible for return:

- The product must be unused and in resalable condition.
- The original packaging, accessories, manuals, tags, and invoices should be retained where applicable.
- Products showing signs of misuse, intentional damage, or improper handling may not be eligible for return.
- Certain products may be non-returnable due to hygiene, safety, customization, or regulatory requirements.
- The company may inspect the product before approving the return and refund.

2. Additional Return Policies

The following situations may also be covered under the return policy:

Wrong Product Delivered

If a customer receives a product different from the product ordered, the customer may request a return or replacement within 10 days of delivery.

Missing Items or Accessories

If an ordered item, component, accessory, or quantity is missing, the customer should report the issue within 48 hours of delivery.

Product Not as Described

If the delivered product materially differs from its description or specifications shown on the website, the customer may request a return within 10 days of delivery, subject to verification.

Size or Variant Issue

For eligible products such as clothing, footwear, or similar products, customers may request a size or variant replacement within 10 days of delivery, subject to availability.

Change of Mind

Returns due solely to a change of mind may be accepted only for eligible products and within the applicable return period. Shipping or handling charges, if applicable, may be deducted from the refund.

3. Product Replacement Policy

A replacement may be provided when the product is found to be damaged, defective, incorrect, or incomplete at the time of delivery.

Damaged Product

If a product is delivered in a damaged condition:

- The customer should report the damage within 48 hours of delivery.
- The customer may be required to provide photographs or videos showing the damage and packaging.
- The company may inspect or verify the reported damage.
- If the damage is confirmed, the product will be replaced with the same product, subject to availability.
- If the same product is unavailable, the company may provide an alternative resolution, such as a refund or replacement with an equivalent product.

Defective Product

If a product develops or has a manufacturing defect within the applicable return/replacement period:

- The customer may request a replacement.
- The company may inspect the product to determine whether the issue is a manufacturing defect.
- Damage caused by misuse, accidents, unauthorized modifications, or improper installation may not qualify for replacement.

Incorrect Product

If the customer receives an incorrect product, the company may arrange a replacement with the originally ordered product at no additional product cost, subject to availability.

4. Replacement Restrictions

Replacement may not be applicable when:

- The product has been damaged due to customer misuse.
- The product has been modified or repaired by an unauthorized person.
- The product is missing essential parts or accessories due to customer handling.

- The damage is caused by normal wear and tear.
- The replacement request is submitted after the applicable replacement period.
- The product is specifically identified as non-replaceable on the product page.

5. Refund Processing

Once a returned product has been received and successfully verified:

- The applicable refund amount will be calculated according to the return period.
- A return within 5 days qualifies for a 100% product-value refund.
- A return after 5 days and up to 10 days qualifies for a 50% product-value refund.
- Returns after 10 days are not eligible for a refund.
- Refunds will normally be issued to the original payment method or through another method supported by the company.
- Applicable delivery, shipping, handling, or other charges may be treated separately according to the order and product-specific terms.

6. Cancellation Policy

Customers may cancel an order before it is dispatched, subject to the company's order-processing rules.

Once an order has been dispatched, cancellation may no longer be available. In such cases, the customer may use the applicable return policy after delivery.

7. Non-Returnable Products

The following categories may be excluded from returns unless the product is damaged, defective, or incorrectly delivered:

- Perishable products.
- Customized or personalized products.
- Products opened after delivery where hygiene or safety requirements apply.
- Products with broken security seals where applicable.
- Digital products or downloadable products.
- Products specifically marked as non-returnable on the product page.
- Products that cannot legally or safely be resold after opening.

8. Customer Responsibility

Customers are responsible for checking the product and reporting any visible damage, missing items, or incorrect products within the specified reporting period.

The company reserves the right to verify return and replacement claims and may reject claims that do not meet the conditions of this policy.

Note: This policy is a sample e-commerce policy and should be reviewed against the applicable consumer-protection and e-commerce laws in the countries where the company operates.
